

Stories of life: Real and imagination

Bijan Saha

Laboratory of Information Technologies
Joint Institute for Nuclear Research, Dubna, Russia

September 24, 2015

An Abhi's Saga

It is the story of a boy who was born and brought up in a remote village in Bangladesh. It is the story of events either took place in his real life or he experienced in his dreams, his thoughts, or events he is longing for to come true someday. Abhi, it is the short name of Abhimannu, the son of Arjun, who learnt the art of war while in the womb of his mother and was killed in the war fought by seven Kuru warriors in violation of all known war-rules. But he is still alive, in the dreams of many young people who fight for justice, for better life of their generation....

An Abhi's Saga

And God fell asleep

It is the story of people living in different worlds separated by millions of light years. The story of daily life, story of love and hatred, story greed and sacrifice and of a helpless God who now ponders what to do with those he created in a moments of whim ....

And God fell asleep

It is the story of dreams those come suddenly from the heaven and make people believe about things that should happen to them and people live on expecting those dream to come true someday ....

Dreams